DOES MY CHILD NEED ANTIBIOTICS?

UF Health Pediatric Resident Dr. Michelle Spencer, MD
Invites your participation in the study entitled:

Operation Superbugs! Combating Antibiotic Resistance

Participants are adult parents/guardians of children 0-18. Volunteers will participate in 30 minute educational seminar about appropriate use of antibiotics and the consequences of misuse. They will also complete pre seminar survey and an additional post seminar survey 1 month after seminar. Participants will be compensated.
